Applicants' Amendment after Final Rejection, filed on May 25, 2007, has been made of record and entered. With the entry of this amendment, claims 1 and 4-14 have been canceled, and in their stead, claims 15-20 have been added.

Claims 15-20 are now pending in this application.

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Applicants' Priority Document was filed on March 9, 2005.

Drawings

The Examiner accepts the drawing filed on March 9, 2005.

Withdrawn Rejection

The 102(e) rejection of claims 1, 4-11, and 13 as being anticipated by Kojoh et al. (U. S. Patent No. 6,753,378) stated in the previous Office Action, has been withdrawn in view of Applicants' cancellation of these claims, and in view of Applicants' persuasive arguments traversing this rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 15-20 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

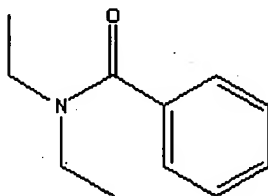

The prior art of record does not teach or suggest the claimed catalyst for polymerizing α -olefin, comprising a combination of components (A) through (D) as recited in the instant claims.

As stated in the previous Office Action, Kojoh et al. did not teach or suggest Applicants' claimed component (C), which comprised compounds represented by general formula (2). Further, although Kojoh et al. disclose N,N-dimethylacetamide, N,N-diethylbenzamide, and N,N-dimethyltoluamide as exemplary electron donors, these donors do not read on Applicants' claimed component (C) comprising compounds represented by Applicants' claimed general formula (1).

Both general formulae require the formation of ring structures.

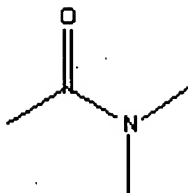

The electron donors disclosed in Kojoh et al. do not meet this requirement.

The structure for N, N-diethylbenzamide is as follows:

Art Unit: 1755

And, for N,N-dimethylacetamide:

Note that in each of these electron donors, the substituents do not interbond and form ring structures.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
